Red Wines

Smooth & Succulent

- 24. Côtes Du Rhône, Reserve L'Abbe, Rhone, France 2017 £24
A lovely little juicy, softly spicy Côtes du Rhône, this is everything a good Cotes du Rhone should be. It's fresh with a softly peppered red fruit and plums, juicy acidity and soft tannins.
- 25. Chateau du Moulin Noir, St Emilion, Bordeaux, France 2012 £45
A smooth, elegant & classy Bordeaux. A beautiful blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc. The fruity bouquet reveals notes of black cherry with silky, ripe tannins and a finesse to add to the lingering finish.
- 26. Enira, Bessa Valley Bulgaria 2014 £47
The wines of Eastern Europe have been overlooked for too long. They offer French style with a New World style weight.
- 27. Bodegas Urbina, Rioja Gran Reserva, Spain 2004 £65
Their Gran Reserva comes from Bodegas Urbina's best grapes, 90% Tempranillo, and all from vines with a minimum age of 20 years. Such is the depth and intensity of the wine that it is matured in oak barrels for two years and then a further four years in bottle at the winery before they even consider releasing it.

Light & Fruity

- 28. Merlot, a Tierra Rocosa, Central Valley, Chile, 2017 £20
You just can't fault this wine for delivering just what you want, lots of soft juicy fruits.
- 29. Pinot Noir, Three Realms, Romania 2017 £24
Romania certainly isn't the first country you would look to for a Pinot Noir. But, with all the classic bright fruit flavours and a touch of spice to finish this has everything you would expect. Ideal with either fish or meat.
- 30. Maranges 1er Cru "Clos des Loyeres" 2016 Chateau Charriere 2016 £56
A very fine red Burgundy from an up and coming village close to Santenay. Elegant clean pure Pinot Noir fruit. Classy wine, well worth discovering.
- 31. Fleurie, Montangeron, Beaujolais, France 2013 £33
A generous, silky Fleurie; a perfect balance of density, richness and freshness. A long aromatic finish gives the wine a truly delicious character.
- 32. Pinot Noir, Bascand Estate, Marlborough, New Zealand 2017 £36
A warm, vibrant and well-structured Pinot Noir. Great with duck.
- 33. Pinot Noir, Mount Jefferson Cuvee, Cristom, Willamette Valley, Oregon, USA 2015 £64
Aromas of brooding deep Oregon strawberry & pekoe-tea leaves. There is great vitality and liveliness.

Rounded & Fuller Style

- 34. Smouldering Siren, Chapter 1, Touriga Nacional, Stellenbosch, South Africa, 2016 £25
The sister to our signature white wine counterpart. Touriga Nacional is a high quality, dark skinned & distinctly fragranced grape. Highly revered across Portugal & South Africa.
- 35. Malbec, Inacayal, Mendoza, Argentina 2017 £26
Full rich rounded flavoursome red from vineyards high in the Andes foot hills. Plums and spice on the nose.
- 36. Cabernet Sauvignon, Casas Del Bosque, Rapel Valley, Chile 2016 £27
Deep ruby red in colour, on the nose this wine exhibits lifted notes of dark cherry, cinnamon, cloves and espresso bean. In the mouth flavours of cassis, dark plum and nutmeg dominate with a long finish.
- 37. Malbec, Los Haraldos, Family Reserve, Argentina 2015 £40
Full rich rounded flavoursome red from vineyards high in the Andes foot hills. Plums and spice on the nose.
- 38. Amarone Della Valpolicella, Tenute Fiorbelli, Veneto, Italy 2012 £65
The wine has a lovely and intense dark garnet colour. It exudes aromas and flavours of black cherries, chocolate, coffee, and raisins. The palate is velvety, spicy and elegant, with an extremely long finish.

Rich, Spicy & Concentrated

- 39. Pinotage, Abraham & The Heretics, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2015 £28
Bright & juicy with touches of cherries & berries. Well balanced with good acidity and a smoky, sweet finish.
- 40. Reserva Carménère, central valley, Santa Alba, Chile 2015 £25
The Carménère grape has added a new dimension to Chilean wines, full flavoured herbaceous and characterful reds.
- 41. Vina Alberdi Rioja Reserva, Rioja Alta, Spain 2012 £48
The best region for Rioja is Rioja Alta and the La Rioja Alta estate is the best of the best, very traditional wines.
- 42. Faithful Hound, Mulderbosch, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2015 £47
A classic Bordeaux style wine, aged in oak for 18 months to allow the wine to mature and mellow. Great weight in the glass makes this a wine to be savoured.
- 43. Shiraz, Art Series, Leeuwin Estate, Margaret River, Australia 2013 £60
The 'Art Series' represents the most opulent & age worthy wines from the vintage. A fruity, floral fragrance with complex spices and a palate of blueberries & mulberries with an oaky structure. This wine is bright & balanced.

Fine Red Wines

- 44. Château Deyrem Valentin, Margaux, Bordeaux, France 2016 £81
From the foothills of St Emilion, blend made from old vines. Good bottle age drinking well now.
- 45. Chambolle Musigny Vieilles Vignes Domaine Magnien, Burgundy, France 2015 £95
Old vine traditional Pinot Noir – a classic Feminine Burgundy
- 46. Barolo Riserva Essenze, Vite Colte, Italy 2018 £105
Aromas of dried rose, espresso, star anise and a touch of oak lead the way. The medium-bodied palate offers dried red cherry, liquorice and tobacco set against taut, fine-grained tannins.
- 47. Tiganello, Antinori, Tuscany, Italy, 2012 £160
One of the best Tignanellos ever made. Aromas of currants and blueberries with hints of flowers. Full body, with fine tannins and a refined finish. A red that delivers balance and beauty. Rich and gorgeous.
- 48. Alter Ego Chateau Palmer, Margaux, Bordeaux, France, 2006 £160
A robust nose of fruit jellies (peaches, sour cherries, plums and blackberries), a touch of spice, smoke and mineral aromas, with some violet floral notes. Very well-balanced palate with a long delicious finish.

Large Bottles

- 49. Château Ballan -Larguette, Bordeaux, France 2014 Magnum £58
A small family estate produced Claret, smooth well rounded and offers great value.
- 50. Chateuneuf du Pape, Berthet Rayne, Rhone, France 2015 Magnum £120
Exhibits a dark ruby colour, full body and rich, concentrated notes of black cherries and cassis. The powerful fruit acquire rich, toasty flavours which develop into a wine of considerable finesse and elegance.

Champagne & Sparkling

	Bottle
100. Prosecco D.O.C, Astoria, Treviso, Italy	£30
Elegant, Delicate and fragrant. White peach and citrus hints. The perfect aperitif from grapes grown on this high-quality family owned estate.
104. Taittinger, Brut Reserve, Reims N.V.	£60
One of the last family owned houses remaining in Champagne. The house style is a combination of fruit and blossom flavours, paired with a touch of brioche richness which it gains from ageing in the ancient cellars before release.
105. Taittinger Nocturne, N.V.	£75
The same blend of quality grapes that go into the Brut Réserve, but this time with a little extra sugar added to give a fruitier richness on the finish. This is a Champagne that you could drink all night and works equally well at the end of a meal as it does at the start.
106. Taittinger Nocturne Rosé, N.V.	£85
Something very special. Higher sugar, just as in the Nocture, but with the addition of a touch of red wine, to give a soft, fruitier character. A real treat..
115. Laurent Perrier Cuvee Rose Brut, N.V.	£85
Perhaps the best pink Champagne.
107. Taittinger, Comtes de Champagne, Blanc de Blancs Brut 2006	£175
The top Champagne from the Taittinger house. Made purely from Chardonnay and aged in the chalk caves originally excavated by the Romans. Only produced in the finest years, before spending time on oak barrels then ageing for at least 8 years before release to add to the complexity of the wine.
109. Dom Perignon, 2004	£200
The flagship of Moet et Chandon. An exceptional year making this one of the most well sought after champagnes. The 2004 is a rare vintage becoming increasingly difficult to obtain.

Dessert Wines
