An unusual but stunning combination with a touch of sweetness.

Rich, Creamy & Full

- 16. Tobelos Blanco, Rioja, Spain 2014 £36
This white wine is fermented in new French fine grain oak barrels for six months. A fantastic white rioja with all the body and substance of its red counter-part. A must try with pork and chicken.
- 17. Chablis, Joseph Drouhin, Burgundy, France 2014 £44
Everything you would expect from a Chablis and more. Lively on the palate with lot of finesse and balance.
- 23. Pouilly-Fuisse, Domaine de la Chapelle, Burgundy, France 2015 £48
Family owned estate. Fabulous notes of baked apples, creamy vanilla and toasty oak. The terrific intensity of fruit is all rounded off and complemented by superb balance and excellent length.

Finest & Classy Wines

- 21. St Aubin 1er Cru Domaine Billard, Burgundy, France 2014 £52
Saint Aubin is a small commune, located just behind the famous Montrachet vineyards.
- 25. Chardonnay, La Crema, Sonoma Coast, USA 2013 £50
Could be easily mistaken for a fine white Burgundy – truly stunning.
- 26. Meursault, Domaine Berthelemot, Burgundy, France 2013 £70
Well-made Meursault, in a traditional style, lemony citrus fruit and fresh vibrant youthful flavours.
- 27. Rocking Horse White, Thorne & Daughters, Western Cape, South Africa 2014 £60
The aromas are of gooseberry, clementine, peach, lavender, rosemary and burnt sugar. The wine starts broad and rich, resolving into a keen line of acidity and pithy tannin that finishes on an oyster-bed salinity.
- 28. Puligny Montrachet 1er Cru Les Puits, Domaine Larue, Burgundy, France 2014 £120
Produced in one of the villages finest vineyard sites, a bit of bottle age and a good concentration of fruit and mellowness.

A Bit of Rosé

- 40. Rimo Rosé, Domaine de Rimauresq, Provence, France 2016 £36
A fantastic dry rosé that is lively and fresh. Perfect for drinking on those warm summer days.
- 41. Malbec Rosado, Los Haraldos, Uco Valley, Mendoza, Argentina 2015 £26
A bright nose of strawberries & cherries, the palate is creamy yet light and refreshing with plenty of red fruits and a hint of sweetness.

Half bottles

- 29. Chablis, William Fevre, Burgundy, France 2013 £23
A wonderful expression of Chardonnay with no oak but great elegance and finesse.
- 30. Sancerre, Domaine Charmilles, Loire, France 2015 £22
As good as Sauvignon Blanc gets - in our opinion!
- 95. Chianti Classico, Barone Ricasoli, Tuscany, Italy 2013 £22
Sangiovese blend, good dark red fruit flavours and velvety tannins.
- 96. Chateau La Croix des Moines, Lalande de Pomerol, Bordeaux, France 2013 £24
A predominantly merlot blend from this wonderful 8 hectare site.

Red Wines

Smooth & Succulent

- 51. Senorio de Sarria Crianza, Bodega de Sarria, Navarra, Spain 2013 £25
A baby Rioja, Vibrant berry fruits with well-structured spice in the background.
- 53. Scruffj's Shiraz, Nugan Estate, New South Wales, Australia 2014 £35

- 54. Côtes Du Rhône, Reserve L'Abbe, Rhone, France 2015 £24
A lovely little juicy, softly spicy Côtes du Rhône, this is everything a good Cotes du Rhone should be. It's fresh with a softly peppered red fruit and plums, juicy acidity and soft tannins.
- 55. The Bullet Dodger Montepulciano, Delinquente, Riverland, Australia 2016 £36
Fragrant aromas of freshly crushed berries mixed with violet & liquorice. A juicy palate with fruity flavours of plums, herbs and a touch of coffee. A good dry finish with light acidity & tannins.
- 60. Bay Horse House Claret, Chateau Ballan - Larquette Bordeaux, France 2014 £29
A small family estate produces our Bay Horse Claret, smooth rounded and offers great value.
- 66. Chateau du Moulin Noir, St Emilion, Bordeaux, France 2010 £37
A smooth, elegant & classy Bordeaux. A beautiful blend of Merlot and Cabernet Franc. The fruity bouquet reveals notes of black cherry with silky, ripe tannins and a finesse to add to the lingering finish.
- 81. Enira, Bessa Valley Bulgaria 2011 £42
The wines of Eastern Europe have been overlooked for too long. They offer French style with a New World style weight.

Light & Fruity

- 50. Merlot, Karu Estate, Central Valley, Chile 2015 £20
You just can't fault this wine for delivering just what you want, lots of soft juicy fruits.
- 52. Negroamaro, Masseria Borgo dei Trulli, Puglia, Italy 2016 £24
Intense red with a violet hue in colour, the nose displays aromas of plum, wild strawberry & black pepper. The palate is full bodied and well balanced with a long & persistent finish.
- 59. Pinot Noir, Villa des Croix, Languedoc, France 2015 £28
Lighter style with flavours of wild strawberry & soft red fruits. Good body and a savoury finish to work with lighter meats
- 62. Fleurie, Cuvée les Hauts du Py, Villa Ponciago, Beaujolais, France 2013 £32
A generous, silky Fleurie; a perfect balance of density, richness and freshness.
A long aromatic finish gives the wine a truly delicious character.
- 64. Pinot Noir, Bascand Estate, Marlborough, New Zealand 2014 £34
A warm, vibrant and well-structured Pinot Noir. Great with duck.
- 70. Chorey les Beaune, Domaine Tollot-Beaut, France 2012 £54
This wine displays all the classic Pinot qualities, soft and elegant but not too over ripe fruit.

Rounded & Fuller Style

- 63. Chianti, Colle de Sensei, Bichi Borghesi, Tuscany, Italy, 2014 £33
The shining ruby red wine has a fruity bouquet with inklings of cherry. The taste is gentle and fresh, with a good balance of alcohol, tannins & acidity and a long persistent finish.
- 56. Malbec, Inacayal, Mendoza, Argentina 2015 £26
Full rich rounded flavoursome red from vineyards high in the Andes foot hills. Plums and spice on the nose.
- 72. Haut Medoc, Chateau Sénéjac, Cru Bourgeois, Bordeaux, France 2012 £45
Classic style of claret, made for drinking young. Delicate, with a good sweetness of fruit and a long & harmonious finish
- 57. Pinotage, Abraham & The Heretics, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2013 £28
Bright & juicy with touches of cherries & berries. Well balanced with good acidity and a smoky, sweet finish.
- 61. Cabernet Sauvignon, Reserva, Rapel Valley, Casas Bosque, Chile 2013 £27
Deep ruby red in colour, on the nose this wine exhibits lifted notes of dark cherry, cinnamon, cloves and espresso bean. In the mouth flavours of cassis, dark plum and nutmeg dominate with a long finish.
- 75. Amarone Della Valpolicella, Tenute Fiorbelli, Veneto, Italy 2011 £62
The wine has a lovely and intense dark garnet colour. It exudes aromas and flavours of black cherries, chocolate, coffee, and raisins. The palate is velvety, spicy and elegant, with an extremely long finish.

Rich, Spicy & Concentrated

- 58. Reserva Carménère, Casas Del Bosque, Rapel Valley, Chile 2014 £26
The Carménère grape has added a new dimension to Chilean wines, full flavoured herbaceous and characterful reds.
- 65. Pinot Noir Cabernet Sauvignon, Binz Bratt, Pfalz, Germany 2013 £32
A crimson red wine with an aroma of dark fruits with a hint of wood. A smooth, full-bodied wine with notes of strawberry, blackcurrant and well-integrated oak and a long lingering finish.
- 67. Rioja Crianza, Vina Marro, Rioja, Spain 2013 £29
A wine which achieves the perfect balance of fruit and oak. Perfect with Lamb.
- 68. Vina Alberdi Rioja Reserva, Rioja Alta, Spain 2010 £45
The best region for Rioja is Rioja Alta and the La Rioja Alta estate is the best of the best, very traditional wines.
- 69. Vacqueras, Chateau Montmiral, Rhone, France 2014 £41
Full bodied and fruit driven wine with underlying elements of cloves and dark berries.
Pair with red meat, cheeses and game.
- 71. Faithful Hound, Mulderbosch, Stellenbosch, South Africa 2014 £43
A classic Bordeaux style wine, aged in oak for 18 months to allow the wine to mature and mellow.
Great weight in the glass makes this a wine to be savoured.

Finest & Classy Reds

- 76. Château Grand Pey Lescours, St Emilion Grand Cru, Bordeaux, France 2004 £65
From the foothills of St Emilion, blend made from old vines. Good bottle age drinking well now.
- 77. Bodegas Urbina, Rioja Gran Reserva, Spain 1996 £65
Their Gran Reserva comes from Bodegas Urbina's best grapes, 90% Tempranillo, and all from vines with a minimum age of 20 years. Such is the depth and intensity of the wine that it is matured in oak barrels for two years and then a further four years in bottle at the winery before they even consider releasing it. The palate is a delight, with a real intensity of stewed autumn fruits combined with sweet spice. A truly exceptional wine.
- 73. Shiraz, Art Series, Leeuwin Estate, Margaret River, Australia 2010 £69
The 'Art Series' represents the most opulent & age worthy wines from the vintage. A fruity, floral fragrance with complex spices and a palate of blueberries & mulberries with an oaky structure. This wine is bright & balanced.
- 79. Pinot Noir, Mount Jefferson Cuvee, Cristom, Willamette Valley, Oregon, USA 2012 £74
Aromas of brooding deep Oregon strawberry & pekoe-tea leaves. There is great vitality and liveliness.
One of the most expansive, yet stylistically consistent Pinot Noirs in the world.
- 74. Holy Moly, Syrah, Schneider, Pfalz, Germany, 2013 £78

- 91. Rioja Crianza, Diez Caballero, Rioja, Spain 2010 £60
Traditional Rioja, perfect party wine.
- 92. Château Tour de By, Medoc, Bordeaux, France, 2009 £86
This has a nice, glossy hue, but not a lot of concentration. An appealing nose, raspberry fruit and a little oak.

Champagne & Sparkling

100. Prosecco, Calogera, Italy N.V.

Elegant, Delicate and fragrant. White peach and citrus hints. The perfect aperitif.

125ml Glass Bottle
£6.00 £26

104. Laurent Perrier Brut N.V.

Great quality from this family owned estate.

£9.95 £59

105. Bollinger Special Cuvée, AY N.V.

007's Champagne of choice, a subtle combination of structure, length and vivacity; bubbles like velvet; pear, brioche and spicy aromas, notes of fresh walnut.

£80

115. Laurent Perrier Cuvée Rose Brut, N.V.

Perhaps the best pink Champagne.

£85

107. Pol Roger Vintage, Epernay, 2004

The nose is mineral and elegant. On the palate the wine is intense yet retains a sense of delicacy with balanced notes of stone fruit, acacia honey and citrus underpinned by a fine thread of acidity.

£110

109. Dom Perignon, 2004

The flagship of Moët et Chandon. An exceptional year making this one of the most well sought after champagnes. The 2004 is a rare vintage becoming increasingly difficult to obtain.

£200

116. Dom Perignon, Vintage 2003

Born in a year punctuated by extremes; a severe spring frost followed by a month long heatwave causing an early and perfectly ripe harvest. Only getting better with age, the 2003 bodes to be one of the great champagnes.

£350
